

come down no less able and independent than those who had then contributed to the aid.
 Mr. Faulkner proceeded at length to the examination of the subjects embraced in the Atlantic bill, to which he gave his hearty approval.

THE LATE INTERESTING DUEL.

The correspondence between Emma, Canning and Byron, which we have been giving in full in many of the papers of the day. We do not care to burden our columns with such a matter; but, finding a well-condensed summary of the contents of these letters in the Markets.

BALTIMORE, APRIL 10.—Flour here not so cheap as much as it is supposed to have done since the late European news. Sales of 600 barrels of City Mills at $7.15. Whisky—scale of prices as follows: $1.80, and of red at $1.72 to $1.75. Corn sales of 13,000 bushels at 71 to 72 cents. White, and at 72 to 74 cents for yellow. Oats—scale of prices as follows: 40 cents. Butter in kegs at 12 to 14 cents; roll at 16 to 6 cents. Whiskey sold at 24 to 25 cents.

MEDICAL TESTIMONY CANNOT BE CONSIDERED REVERSED.

On Monday, the 27th of March, after the personal decision in the House, Mr. Cutting addressed a note to Mr. Breckinridge, in which he demanded of him a withdrawal of the word "false" from the first part of his speech. The reasons were due from one gentleman to another, and he referred to Mr. Maurice as his friend to see him. Mr. Breckinridge refused to do this, and said that the word "false" was used by him in consequence of a previous expression made up of by Mr. Cutting. He said that the first part of his speech was withdrawn the word complained of. With reference to the second part of the note, Mr. Breckinridge considered it a challenge, and accordingly appointed Col. Hawkins his friend to arrange preliminaries.

On the following morning, Tuesday, Col. Hawkins called on Mr. Brockbridge, and after a long and friendly conversation, he made him a visit from Mr. Brockbridge, accepting the alternative proposition suggested in Mr. Cutting's note. This Mr. Maurice declined, but received from Mr. Brockbridge a letter from Mr. Col. Hawkins considered could not be received, on the ground that no additional note could be accepted under Mr. Brockbridge's response to Mr. Maurice's challenge. The letter was given to him the latter. Thereupon, both gentlemen separated, and Col. Hawkins delivered Mr. Brockbridge a letter from Mr. Cutting.

Mr. Maurice did not deliver the note he held from Mr. Cutting to Brockbridge.

Mr. Cutting, at this stage of the proceedings, was not present, and Mr. Brockbridge, as his friend, who waited upon Col. Hawkins, and demanded the terms of meeting.

[illegible]

"Col. Hawkins declined to accede to this view of the case, or yield the right of his printing press to the mob, plain and wondrous, as the challenged party.

"Col. Monroe took the ground that neither he nor his principal considered the first note a challenge, but asked for time to confer with Mr. Cutting.

"Col. Monroe, the next morning, stated that he had conferred with Mr. Cutting, and that his first note was not intended as a challenge.

"Col. Hawkins then referred them to Mr. Brandegee's first note, of the 27th, which he declined to make the retraction of the word 'false,' so long as the cause remained in Mr. Cutting's previous expression.

"The next day, Mr. Cutting, in writing, that the expressions used were intended as a criticism.

Oliver Branch, Boston.

Here is a book destined to have a sale unequalled by any other since the Uncle Tom's Cabin Life Book.

The appeal and the young will rise from its pages with a new and more intense feeling—Hingham Journal.

... Templelighter is a book which is destined to be a great power in the world.

An intensely interesting novel, and, as a picture of our country, admirable.—Clipp's Evening Gazette.

A book rich in thought, beauty, patios, and dramatic interest.—Id.

It is a great book, the work of an original and extraordinary power.—International Journal.

... of the most interesting and valuable of the interest, the curious and the most interesting of the last line of the last page is finished.—South Atlantic.

This is a work of surpassing interest.—Id.

tion on his arguments, and not as personal to Mr. Cutting.

"Mr. Brookings thereupon expressed his satisfaction at the disavowal of any personal offense on the part of Mr. Cutting, and willingly withdrew the offending paragraph, remarking that a similar disavowal on the part of Mr. Cutting, at the time, would have prevented all difficulty."

"The affair," they terminated, to the satisfaction of the friends of both parties."

Two Days Later from Europe.

The group arrived at New York on Saturday evening, with Liverpool dates of the 23d, ultimo.

Political affairs were unchanged. The fear of a war had been removed.

The export of gold was not so heavy, and the

The Lamplighter deserves all the praise it has received.

It is infinitely superior to any American one we have ever read.—Waverley Magazine.

There is no question but that the Lamplighter is the best of all American dailies.—Waverley Palladium.

It is an interesting book, from title to its Portland Inquirer.

The Lamplighter is a delightful story—original, and full of interest.

It is unequalled in thrilling interest by any yet published.—Springfield Post.

Portions of this book are worthy the genius of Dickens.—Temperance Gazette.

It possesses the rare merit of interesting all classes.—Waverley Magazine.

It is a great book.—Standard.

A work of extraordinary power and interest.—Waverley Magazine.

It is a most exhaustive work.—Ch. No. 1.

rate of interest was unchanged. The London Times states that Russia has consented to the evacuation of the Crimea, and that Russian people were earnestly petitioning their Government to join the Western Powers, but the Government holds back. Austria seems to have decided to remain neutral. Powers, who have decided or definite manner. There is nothing new from Asia or Kulsat. The fleets retained in the Mediterranean are not expected to be sent to the Crimea. The Russian fleet is expected to be sent to the Crimea. The Russian fleet is expected to be sent to the Crimea.

the Iowa lands, 100,000—Cotton had declined 10 to 15¢. Wheat—No decline. Flour—25 decline.

From California, Oregon, &c.

The steamer George Law arrived at New York yesterday, with 500 passengers. She brings the California mails to the 16th ultimo, and contains the usual quantity of news on large medium paper, quarto form.

PRINCIPLES AND MEASURES.

Slavery—A violation of the Constitution.—The States have no constitutional right to maintain slavery, and the people are bound to suppress it—All the Slavery nation is national Slavery, and the nation is not national Slavery.—The nation is not recognition of past Compromise.—No more compromise.—No more compromise.—No property.—No voting for candidates across the president of the mission. This is a serious matter, and it is to be hoped that the difficulties had again broken out. The dates from Oregon are to March 11th gold diggings were reported to have been commenced in Oregon.

In Washington Territory, Columbia Lancaster has been chosen delegate to Congress. The people of this Territory are suffering, in consequence of the prevalence of crime and the weakness of the Government. A vigilance committee of foreigners had been formed.

At San Francisco, California, the brigantine, had arrived at San Francisco. She brought up, as prisoner, Frederick Emery, the reported Secretary of the United States at San Francisco. He was arrested at San Diego, by order of Captain Dorn, of the sloop of war Portsmouth.

At San Francisco, California, the brigantine, had arrived at San Francisco. She brought up, as prisoner, Frederick Emery, the reported Secretary of the United States at San Francisco. He was arrested at San Diego, by order of Captain Dorn, of the sloop of war Portsmouth.

[illegible]

exhausted; the remainder of the time they substituted principally on suits. All the men left behind were disarmed. The Indians along the route said at their approach, setting fire to the canoes and huts, and carrying off all their provisions.

Lieut. Strain started alone, on his return to the Chusquea river. The commander of the British steamer Virgo dispatched a boat up the river for the relief of the sufferer.

Lieutenant Fanshawe, of the Gyaco, sent in the name of Lieut. Strain, returned to Panama on the 27th of March. The ship of war Gyaco left Aquival on the 24th.

RECEIPTS AGAINST THE NEBRASKA

Mr. Gerrard's speech, "Freedom and Poll Tax," price $1 per hundred. The same speech by the same man, at the same price.

Mr. Gerrard's speech, "The great speech," Landmark of Freedom," is in course of preparation and will be ready in a few days—price $1 per hundred.

In press, also, the Speeches of Mr. Wade, of Ohio; Mr. Fremont, of Maine; in the Senate, against Nebraska Bill. Price of each, $1 per hundred.

The above speech will be forwarded, free of charge, to all who send for them. Address: J. D. Adams accompanied with the cash. Address: J. D. Adams, 100 Broadway, New York.

DURELL & COMPANY,
Washington, D. C.

